Dear Consul General Sayeed,

As Attorney General for the State of Illinois, I want to offer my congratulations and best wishes to you and the people of India on the celebration of Independence Day 2016. It is truly an honor to recognize and celebrate the 70th anniversary of India's national independence.

On this special occasion, I commend the Consulate General of India for its important work on behalf of the Indian community of Illinois. The Indian community represents a vital and important part of our state, and your work makes that community more vibrant and influential. This aid from the consulate is invaluable to the immigrants who are trying to get situated in a new country, as well as those who are simply visiting the United States.

I would like to extend my best wishes for a memorable celebration. Again, I congratulate you on the celebration of this special Independence Day.

Very truly yours,
